ELKS CARE – ELKS SHARE

Volume CII - Issue 7 “FRATERNAL ORGANIZATION” July-Aug. 2016

Exalted Rulers Message;

Hi all,

It has been a busy couple months so far. I have been enjoying seeing the different lodges and how they operate. We could learn a few things. June 10-12 some of us attended the Mass State Elks Convention. It was very motivating. There is a huge push for new members. The process to bring in new people has been shorted. No longer a 60 day process. July 2-7 Bob Mott and myself will be at the Elks National convention in Houston, Tx.

I would like to thank the people that made the Elks on the Trail Breakfast a success. I would also like to thank Scott Greaves for painting the door on Federal St. It looks great.

Tip of the Antlers...

The Friday night dinner crew, with tips collected over the past few years, purchased a new, commercial microwave for the kitchen.

Thanks to David Baker, son-in-law of past member Frank Okula, in his memory donated a mounted set of Elk antlers which are hanging in the Lodge meeting room.

Thanks to Gary Gadreault, Loyal Knight and Fred Ulrich, PER, Secy, for hanging them up there.

The Book Fair held in May was very successful, 123 children attended throughout the afternoon. Thanks to the Elk members of the Lodge who volunteered to help.

Thanks to Boy Scout Troop 5 for participating in our flag Day ceremony. Fran Sirum, Linda Gorey, PER, and Scott Greaves, PER, prepared and served all in attendance hamburgers and hot dogs.

Thanks to Ed Williams from the local Moose Lodge for getting the Easter Bunny suit cleaned, and to Phil Stevens for arranging it.

Scott Greaves for painting the entrance door.

VFW Post 417 and Bernie Schatz for donating the flags that adorn the roof balcony.

And all the Members that attended the Elk Funeral Service for George Edmund Herzig Jr. and Funeral Service held June 23, 2016.
