Volume CV - Issue 10 FRATERNAL ORGANIZATION October 2019

Exalted Rulers Message: Members All;

Well September really did come & go. I hope you all enjoyed your summer. Summer was slow for the Lodge but, things are picking up. We have recently finished our Lodge Golf tournament and I am being told it is the first in a long time the Tournament was filled. Thank you to all the members and guest who participated and made this go well. We have also initiated seven new members during our annual District deputy visitation. We had a very good meal cooked by Cecile Massey & her crew. Oh man was it good. There were many events coming up, please get involved and help out anyway you can.

Fraternally, Michael W. Blanchard ER,PDD,HLM

Tip of the Antlers:

To the members who helped clean the coolers, remove & wash the floor mats, scrub the floor and all the shelving before replacing the goods. The toughest part of the job was putting the shelving back in place. With the knowledge of Kelli Snow identifying the correct location of everything, we may not know if some of it is still on the MTA with Tom Dooley.

“Cheers” to Kelli Snow, Scott Greaves, Tim Herzig, Corey O’Connell, Fred Ulrich, Dave Sprague, Bobby Killay & Kristen Watters for the four plus hours of dedication.

“Thank you’s” To those who helped clean the kitchen before health inspection. Corey O’ Connell, Gary Gadreault, Harry Breite & Scott Greaves, and with the help of Marsha Bonnett, rearranging the pots, pans and inventory. A never ending chore.

Really appreciate the delicious presentation of “Grinders” during the Patriots game on Sunday Sept. 29. It was a lot of fun having Dave Sprague, Scott Greaves, Kathy & Joe Tomaus preparing the food. “Thanks guys.”

To Scott Greaves & Gary Gadreault & anyone else who has been helping get the lodge fixed up for the health Inspection. There are a few more things to tidy up.

A huge “Thank You” to the kitchen crew for the initiation meal, it was fabulous. Bill & Ceal Massey, Dave and Marsha Bonnette, Madalyn Phillips and Jean Wilder
