April 2022

As the new Exalted Ruler, I want to thank the members of the lodge with your confidence. Getting to this position has happened faster than I thought it would be, but is a challenge that I will embrace with the best of my ability.

The new fraternal year is one that I hope will continue to see the lodge increase functions and as Elks do, provide help in our communities. The success of our Irish Night is a credit to our members who organized the event and our lodge for joining in on the fun. I truly hope we can continue to offer events such as this for the rest of the year.

The lodge is still in need of an Esteemed Lecturing Knight and an Inner Guard, Please consider stepping forward and help guide the affairs of the lodge. Kif ypur interested, you can reach out to myself or any officer of the lodge. If you have concerns, questions and/or ideas, please feel free to contact me. Neal Jennison, Exalted Ruler

SLAINTE!

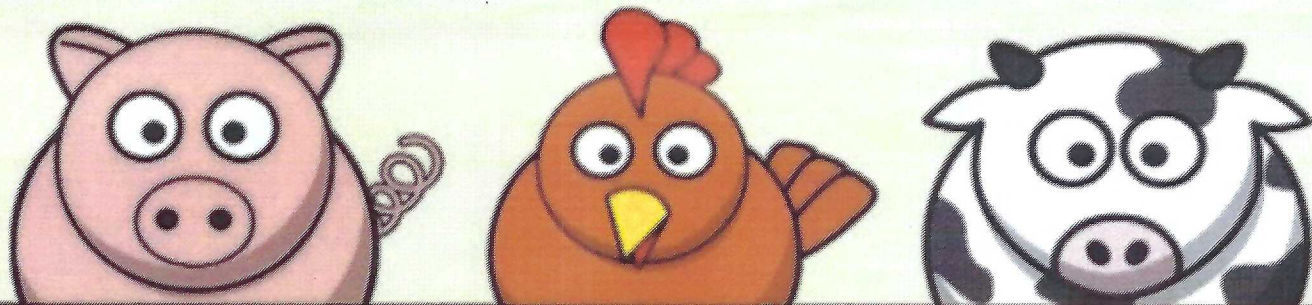

The Irish Night Dinner was back in person after being cancelled in 2000 and being take-out only in 2021. It was a huge success with meals selling out and a huge crowd enjoying music and libations. Our two bartenders Shelly and Jordan did a great job keeping the drinks flowing.

Mike Moore and Corey O'Connell, Co-chairmen of the Irish Night Committee, would like to thank everyone who helped out with this year's Irish Night Dinner: Buzzy Blanchard, Dave Bonnett, Ryan O'Connell, Bill O'Connell, Steve O'Connell, Skip Jepson, Jon Moore, Matt Sheridan, James Bozek, Scott Greaves, Stan Maynard, Gary Gadreault, Jerry Gaimari, Doug Baker, and Marty Powers. Helping serve plates were Loretta Chattelle, Patty Baker, Maureen Deveno, Beth Cadran, and Linda Baker. Our apologies for we are most likely forgetting a name or two.

Liz Moore would like to thank Heather Mahoney, Marsha Bonnett, and Scott Greaves for helping with raffle table. Also, thanks to everyone who donated and also participated in raffles.

Enough was raised from proceeds from the dinner and raffles to fund the Henry Burns Memorial Scholarship for local students. Thank you all!
